

SHS Summer Reading Program-2009

Open Your Eyes to Something New!

The books listed below are required summer reading. These books have been chosen specifically for the connection they have to the classes. The novels will be a part of the curriculum during the first weeks of the semester.

If you are going to be a:

Freshman in E101 or E102, please choose one:

Touching Spirit Bear by Ben Mikaelson or Stargirl by Jerry Spinelli

E108 Students read Alas, Babylon
by Pat Frank

Sophomores in E201 or E202, please choose one:

Something Wicked This Way Comes by Ray Bradbury
or Hole in My Life by Jack Gantos

E208 students read 1984 by George Orwell

Junior in 301/302/331/336, please choose one:

Slaughterhouse Five by Kurt Vonnegut
or
Of Beetles and Angels by Mawi Asgedom

E319 students read Welcome to the Monkey House by Vonnegut along with either The Scarlet Letter by Hawthorne or Fast Food Nation by Schlosser

Senior-All Levels (except 419), please choose one:

First They Killed My Father: A Daughter of Cambodia
by Loung Ung
or
The Glass Castle: A Memoir by Jeanette Walls

E419 students read Crime and Punishment
by Fyodor Dostoevsky

These titles are also available at local bookstores, as well as your local public library.